“Professor Keorapetse William Kgositsile’s work donated to Unisa Library”

As the country bids farewell to struggle veteran and the National Poet Laureate, Professor KW Kgositsile, it is with pleasure and pride to announce that the work of the late intellectual and the University of South Africa (Unisa) honorary doctorate recipient have been donated to the Unisa Library at the request of the Kgositsile family.

The university is deeply honored by this most generous and prestigious gesture. Professor Kgositsile’s work will add to the growing body of works of our past presidents, Scholars and intellectuals who contributed to the struggle and attainment of our democracy, and will undoubtedly be used by present and future generations in such a manner that will shape the growth and development of informed African scholarship.

“In making this generous gesture, the Kgositsile family has demonstrated in a very tangible manner, the esteem in which our University is held and the trust that is vested in us to make good on our commitment to be the African University shaping futures in the service of humanity”, said Professor Mandla Makhanya, Principal and Vice Chancellor of Unisa.
