THE 2022 UNISA SPRING GRADUATION CEREMONIES

Approved for public release

DATE: 04 October 2022

The University of South Africa (Unisa) has commenced its annual Spring Graduation ceremonies from today (Tuesday, 4th October 2022). The graduations across the country will embrace a new crop of outstanding graduates on what will undoubtedly be one of the most memorable days in their lives.

The first session has taken place this morning in the ZK Matthews Great Hall at the university's main campus in Muckleneuk, Tshwane.

There are three sessions a day at 10:00, 14:00 and 18:00 on the following days:

- 04 to 06 October
- 11 to 13 October
- 18 to 20 October

Graduations at Unisa symbolise the pinnacle and culmination of the arduous work both students and academics put in over the years. The university takes pride in this sacred tradition that seeks to honour, recognise, and reward outstanding effort, academic success, and excellence.

Other than Tshwane based graduation sessions, Durban and Cape Town will also host graduation ceremonies as follows:

Durban (sessions at 10:00, 14:00 and 18:00 daily)

- 31 October
- 01 to 03 November

Cape Town (sessions at 10:00, 14:00 and 18:00)

- 11 November

Unisa's management and staff salute the graduating class of '22! Congratulating the newly minted graduates, Professor Puleng LenkaBula, Unisa Principal and Vice-Chancellor, says: 'Unisa has armed you with all the requisite knowledge that will hopefully enable you to thrive anywhere in the world, with good prospects. As a graduate of Unisa, you are encouraged to transfer your knowledge to transform your family, community and society with a local and global outlook. I wish you success in your journey ahead as you hoist the Unisa flag high as our proud alumni.'
