Hidden injustices to be revealed at Unisa's Annual Spring Law Conference

Date: 19 October 2020

The University of South Africa (Unisa) will be hosting the 8th Annual Spring Law Conference from 20 to 22 October 2020 under the theme Unmasking the institutionalised socio-economic injustices hidden under the cloak of the rainbow and the fallacy of the post-colonial Africa. It will be a virtual event at which academics from across disciplines and professionals from various sectors will engage in robust discussion on issues related to the topic.

Influential and authoritative speakers such as Advocate Pansy Tlakula (Chairperson of the Information Regulator of South Africa), Professor Thoko Mayekiso (Vice-Chancellor of the University of Mpumalanga), Professor Mandla Makhanya (Unisa Principal and Vice-Chancellor), Gogo Phephisile Maseko (Chairperson of the Traditional Healers' Organisation), Rutendo Ngara (Chairperson of the Credo Mutwa Foundation), Xolani Dube (senior researcher at the Xubera Institute for Research and Development) will participate in the conference.

Over the years, Unisa's Annual Spring Law Conference has become an important vehicle to stimulate independent thought and advance academic freedom and transformation. Organised by Unisa's College of Law, the conference aims to promote a culture of research and scholarship. It also provides a platform for discussion of issues that are current within the national, continental and global space.
