

NATIONAL STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

National Student Representative Council Statement on the Latest Times Higher Education Ranking

The National Student Representative Council (NSRC) wishes to applaud the university on its latest ranking, which sees the university ranked 6th in the country. This achievement is a testament to the hard work of the students within the university community who have chosen the University of South Africa as their institution of choice. For over 150 years, our university has been a center of knowledge and excellence.

The latest ranking reaffirms the NSRC's long-held view that the university is resilient. Even in the face of adversity and prophets of doom, UNISANS have remained steadfast in their commitment to the project of teaching and learning.

Furthermore, the collective efforts of the NSRC have been instrumental in maintaining the high standards of our institution. Through our persistent advocacy and engagement with university management, we have ensured that academic and administrative processes are held to the highest standards, thereby guaranteeing that our students receive the quality education they deserve. The university's consistent investment in research and development, infrastructure, and student support services has been instrumental in enhancing the overall educational experience. The NSRC acknowledges the significant strides made in these areas.

The NSRC is committed to continuing its support for the university's mission to provide quality education and to uphold the highest standards of academic excellence. We encourage all students to take pride in this achievement and to continue striving for excellence in their academic pursuits.

As we celebrate this latest ranking, we also recognize that there is always room for growth and improvement. The NSRC remains committed to working tirelessly with all stakeholders to hold the university management accountable. We aim to further elevate our university's status, ensuring it continues to be a leader in higher education both locally and at a global level.

The National Student Representative Council once again congratulates University of South Africa and its students for this achievement.
