

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AFRICA

UNISA is the only publicly funded Institution in South Africa dedicated to distance education. In keeping with its mandate as a comprehensive, open and distance learning tertiary institution offering a variety of academic and career-focused programmes, the University is inviting applications for positions in the COLLEGE OF LAW.

To be considered for a position applicants must meet all the generic requirements plus the specific requirements as stated per position. If found suitable for appointment, Unisa may offer an applicant a position at a level other than the level that was applied for. Furthermore, Unisa reserves the right to offer the applicant a contract appointment.

ACTIVITY:

TEACHING STATEMENT:

All applicants to attach a teaching statement (max 2 000 words) to their application as specified in one of the following options:

Option A: External applicants and internal applicants (from non academic positions) – Describe how you intend to approach teaching and learning by taking into account the information in the policies listed below:

- Unisa's Tuition Policy
- Unisa's Open Distance Learning Policy
- Unisa's Assessment Policy
- Curriculum Policy
- Open Distance Learning (ODL) Pedagogy

The above-mentioned Policies of UNISA can be accessed on the web using a search engine. In the event that you cannot trace the ODL Pedagogy policy finalise your teaching statement without it.

Option B: Internal applicants (from academic positions) –

Explain your:

- Involvement in, or approach to, Open Distance Learning
- Approach to fostering a learner-centered approach
- Involvement in, or approach to, teaching at either undergraduate or postgraduate level
- Involvement in developing study material as an individual or in a team approach
- The extent to which you have, or would, use an electronic learning platform for teaching
- Your pass success rates in the courses you teach/taught and your plan to increase or maintain these rates
- A peer and student evaluation of your teaching
- Your involvement in and provision of learner support to students

The teaching statement must be supported by a portfolio of evidence which may be requested from short listed candidates at the interview.

ACTIVITY:

APPLICATION FORM FOR A PERMANENT ACADEMIC POST:

ACTIVITY:

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON ACADEMIC POSITIONS (LEVELS) OPEN THE LINK OF THE POSITION YOU WISH TO APPLY FOR:

POSITION: PROFESSOR

POSITION: ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

POSITION: SENIOR LECTURER

POSITION: LECTURER

POSITION: JUNIOR LECTURER

The following positions exist:

SCHOOL OF LAW
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC, CONSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL LAW
MUCKLENEUK CAMPUS (PRETORIA)

PROFESSOR/ ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW (X1)
Ref. PROFASSPROF/INTLAW/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Public, Constitutional and International Law would particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in international economic law, including international investment law, international trade law and regional economic integration law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for our modules on international economic law, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate module offered by the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate will also be required to supervise postgraduate students in any field of international economic law.

Post specific requirements: Professor: International Economic Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLD/PhD degree in international economic law
- Must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement.
- Must have at least five years relevant teaching experience in international economic law
- One Doctoral candidate supervised to completion in international economic law
- A research reflection and portfolio;
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least seven research outputs in five years OR five research outputs in three years in international economic law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. For applicants from designated groups, at least four research outputs in five years or at least 3 research outputs in 3 years in international economic law and supervision of postgraduate students in international economic law.

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- An LLD/ PhD degree in international economic law
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement.
- Applicants must have at least five years relevant experience in international economic law.
- Applicants must have successfully supervised at least one Doctoral Candidate to completion.
- Applicants must have produced at least 5.5 research outputs in five years OR 3.5 research outputs in three years in international economic law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed.

Recommendations:

- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment

Post specific requirements Associate Professor: International Economic Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLD/ PhD degree in international economic law
- Must have at least 4 years teaching experience in international economic law or international law
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least six research outputs in five years OR five research outputs in three years in international economic law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. For applicants from designated groups, at least three research outputs in five years OR at least two research outputs in 3 years in international economic law and supervision of postgraduate students in international economic law.

APPLICANTS FROM NON- ACADEMIA

- An LLD/PhD degree in international economic law
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement
- Must have at least 4 years relevant experience in international economic law.
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in international economic law.
- Applicants must submit evidence of research (research reports, articles, supervision of postgraduate studies or any other research activity) in international economic law

Recommendations:

- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Successful supervision of postgraduate candidate to completion

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR/ SENIOR LECTURER: AFRICAN CUSTOMARY (INDIGENOUS) LAW (X1)

Ref. ASSPROFSENLEC/AFRICUST/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Public, Constitutional and International Law will particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in African customary law. Candidates should that although the position is for international economic law, the successful candidate will be required to teach any other module in the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate should be able to supervise both masters and doctoral student in any area of public law (excluding criminal and procedural law), including African customary law.

Post specific requirements: Associate Professor: African customary (Indigenous) law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLD/ PhD degree in African customary (Indigenous) law
- Applicants must have at least 4 years teaching experience in African customary (Indigenous) law
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least six research outputs in five years OR five research outputs in three years in African customary (indigenous) law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. For applicants from designated groups, at least three research outputs in five years OR at least two research outputs in 3 years in African customer (indigenous) law and supervision of postgraduate students.

APPLICANTS FROM NON- ACADEMIA

- An LLD/PhD degree in African customary (indigenous) law
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement
- Must have at least 4 years relevant experience in African customary (indigenous) law
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in African customary (indigenous) law
- Applicants must submit evidence of research (research reports, articles, supervision of postgraduate studies or any other research activity) in African customary (indigenous) law

Post specific requirement: Senior Lecturer: African customary (indigenous) law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LL.M degree in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must be registered for a doctoral degree in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law
- Must have at least three years' teaching experience in African customary (indigenous) law, law constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least five research outputs in five years OR three research outputs in three years. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups may not have produced research outputs.
- Must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio
- Evidence of postgraduate research project supervision in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- Applicants must indicate their intention to register for a Doctoral degree in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least three years' relevant experience in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law.
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio
- Evidence of postgraduate research project supervision in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law

Recommendations:

- One research output (designated groups)
- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Experience in teaching postgraduate courses or postgraduate research project supervision

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR/ SENIOR LECTURER: CITIZENSHIP/ PARTICIPATION AND DEMOCRACY/ CONSTITUTIONAL LAW (X1) Ref. ASSPROFSENLEC/CITIPART DEM/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Public, Constitutional and International Law will particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in Citizenship, Participation and Democracy or constitutional law. Candidates should that although the position is for public law (NOT criminal and procedural law), the successful candidate will be required to teach any other module in the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate should be able to supervise both masters and doctoral student in any area of constitutional law and/or human rights law.

Post specific requirement: Associate Professor: Citizenship/ Participation and Democracy/ Constitutional Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LL.D/ PhD degree in constitutional law or human rights law
- Must have at least 4 years teaching experience in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least six research outputs in five years OR five research outputs in three years in constitutional law or human rights law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. For applicants from designated groups, at least three research outputs in five years OR at least two research outputs in 3 years in constitutional law or human rights law and supervision of postgraduate students.

APPLICANTS FROM NON- ACADEMIA

- An LLD/PhD degree in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in constitutional law or human rights law
- Must have at least 4 years relevant experience. in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must submit evidence of research (research reports, articles, supervision of postgraduate studies or any other research activity) in constitutional law or human rights law

Recommendations:

- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Successful supervision of postgraduate candidate to completion

Post specific requirements: Senior Lecturer: Citizenship/ Participation and Democracy/ Constitutional Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLM degree in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must be registered for a doctoral degree in constitutional law or human rights law
- Must have at least three years' teaching experience in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least five research outputs in five years OR three research outputs in three years. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups may not have produced research outputs.
- Must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio
- Evidence of postgraduate research project supervision in constitutional law or human rights law

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- Applicants must indicate their intention to register for a Doctoral degree in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least three years' relevant experience in constitutional law or human rights law.
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio

Recommendations:

- One research output (designated groups)
- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Experience in teaching postgraduate courses or postgraduate research project supervision

SENIOR LECTURER: AFRICAN CUSTOMARY LAW/ INDIGENOUS LAW (X2) Ref. SENIOLECT/AFRINDIG/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Public, Constitutional and International Law would particularly welcome applicants interested in interested in African customary law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for our undergraduate and postgraduate modules on African customary law, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate module offered by the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate will also be required to supervise postgraduate students in any field of African customary law, human rights law and constitutional law.

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLM degree in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must be registered for a doctoral degree in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law
- Must have at least three years' teaching experience in African customary (indigenous), law constitutional law or human rights law

- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least five research outputs in five years OR three research outputs in three years. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups may not have produced research outputs.
- Must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio
- Evidence of postgraduate research project supervision in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- Applicants must indicate their intention to register for a Doctoral degree in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least three years' relevant experience in African customary (indigenous) law, constitutional law or human rights law.
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio

Recommendations:

- One research output (designated groups)
- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Experience in teaching postgraduate courses or postgraduate research project supervision

SENIOR LECTURER: INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES (x1) Ref. SENIOLECT/INTERSTAT/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Public, Constitutional and International Law will particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in interpretation of statutes (or constitutional interpretation) or public law (NOT criminal or procedural law). Candidates should that although the position is for public law (NOT criminal and procedural law), the successful candidate will be required to teach any other module in the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate should be able to supervise both masters and doctoral student in any area of public law including human rights law.

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLM degree in constitutional interpretation and/or related public law fields
- Applicants must be registered for a doctoral degree in constitutional interpretation and/or related public law fields
- Must have at least three years' teaching experience in constitutional interpretation and/or public law fields
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least five research outputs in five years OR three research outputs in three years. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups may not have produced research outputs.
- Must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio
- Evidence of postgraduate research project supervision public law and/or related fields

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- Applicants must indicate their intention to register for a Doctoral degree in constitutional interpretation and/or a related public law fields
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least three years' relevant experience in constitutional interpretation and/or related public law fields. Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio

Recommendations:

- One research output (designated groups)
- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Experience in teaching postgraduate courses or postgraduate research project supervision

SENIOR LECTURER: CITIZENSHIP, PARTICIPATION AND DEMOCRACY (x 1)
Ref. SENILECT/CITIZPARTDEMO/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Public, Constitutional and International Law will particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in Citizenship, Participation and Democracy or constitutional law or human rights law. Candidates should that although the position is for public law (NOT criminal and procedural law), the successful candidate will be required to teach any other module in the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate should be able to supervise both masters and doctoral student in any area of constitutional law and/or human rights law.

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LL.M degree in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must be registered for a doctoral degree in constitutional law or human rights law
- Must have at least three years' teaching experience in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least five research outputs in five years OR three research outputs in three years. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups may not have produced research outputs.
- Must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio
- Evidence of postgraduate research project supervision in constitutional law or human rights law

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- Applicants must indicate their intention to register for a Doctoral degree in constitutional law and/or human rights law
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least three years' relevant experience in constitutional law or human rights law
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and portfolio

Recommendations:

- One research output (designated groups)
- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Experience in teaching postgraduate courses or postgraduate research project supervision

SCHOOL OF LAW

DEPARTMENT OF MERCANTILE LAW

MUCKLENEUK CAMPUS (PRETORIA)

PROFESSOR: LABOUR LAW AND/OR COMMERCIAL LAW (X1) Ref. PROF/LABCOMLAWCLAWSM/2020

The Department of Mercantile Law would particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for both undergraduate and postgraduate Labour Law and/or Commercial Law modules, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate or postgraduate modules offered by the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate will also be required to supervise postgraduate students in any field of Labour Law and/or Commercial Law in the department and/ or any other field as and when the operational needs of the department require.

Post specific requirements Professor: Labour Law and/or Commercial Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLD/PhD degree in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law;
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least five years relevant teaching experience in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law.
- Applicants must have supervised at least one Doctoral candidate supervised to completion in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law;
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio; and
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least seven research outputs in five years OR five research outputs in three years in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups, at least four research outputs in five years OR at least 3 research outputs in 3 years in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law AND supervision of postgraduate students in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law.

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- An LLD/ PhD degree in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law;
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least five years relevant experience in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law;
- Applicants must have successfully supervised at least one doctoral candidate to completion; and
- Applicants must have produced at least 5.5 research outputs in five years OR 3.5 research outputs in three years in Labour Law and/or Commercial Law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed.

Recommendations:

- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: CORPORATE LAW AND/OR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW (X1) Ref. ASSPROF/CORPINTELLAW/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Mercantile Law would particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for both undergraduate and postgraduate Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law modules, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate or postgraduate modules offered by the department as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate will also be required to supervise postgraduate students in any field of Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law in the department and/or any other field as and when the operational needs of the department require.

Post specific requirements Associate Professor: Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LLD/PhD degree in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law;
- Must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least four years teaching experience in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law;
- One Doctoral candidate supervised to completion in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law;
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio; and
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least six research outputs in the last five years OR at least four research outputs in three years in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups, at least three research outputs in five years OR at least two research outputs in two years in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law AND supervision of postgraduate students in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law.

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- An LLD/PhD degree in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law;
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;

- Applicants must have at least 4 years relevant experience in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law.
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law; and
- Applicants must submit evidence of research (research reports, articles, supervision of postgraduate studies or any other research activity) in Corporate Law and/or Intellectual Property Law.

Recommendations:

- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Successful supervision of postgraduate candidate to completion

SENIOR LECTURER: CORPORATE LAW (X1) Ref. SENLECT/CORPLAW/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Mercantile Law would particularly welcome applicants who have vast experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in Corporate Law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for undergraduate and postgraduate Corporate Law modules, the successful candidate will be expected to teach any other module in the department, as and when the operational needs of the department require.

The successful candidate will also be required to supervise postgraduate students in Corporate Law in the department and or any other field as and when the operational needs of the department require.

Post specific requirements: Senior Lecturer Corporate Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

- An LL.M degree in Corporate Law and/or related field;
- Must have at least three years' teaching experience in Corporate Law;
- Applicants from non-designated groups must have produced at least five research outputs in five years OR three research outputs in three years. The articles/book chapters must be peer reviewed and accredited. Applicants from designated groups may not have produced research outputs;
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio; and
- Applicants must produce evidence of postgraduate research project supervision in Corporate Law.

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

- Applicants must indicate their intention to register for a Doctoral degree in Corporate Law;
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least three years' relevant experience in Corporate Law; and
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio.

Recommendations:

- One research output (designated groups)
- Experience in teaching in an ODeL environment
- Experience in teaching postgraduate courses or postgraduate research project supervision

LECTURER: COMMERCIAL LAW AND/OR LABOUR LAW (X1) Ref. LECTU/COMMLABOURLAW/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Mercantile law would particularly welcome applicants who have experience, knowledge and relevant qualifications in Commercial law and/or Labour law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for the Labour law and/or Commercial law modules, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate law modules offered by the Department as and when operational needs of the Department require.

Post specific requirements: Commercial Law and/or Labour Law

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required;
- Applicants from designated groups must also be registered for a master's degree in law (proof of registration to be submitted with an application);
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant teaching experience; and
- A research reflection and portfolio (to be submitted with an application).

Recommendations

- Participation in community engagement
- Teaching experience in an ODeL environment
- Research outputs: one (1) in three (3) years

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required;
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement;
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant working/industry experience;
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in Commercial Law and/or Labour Law; and
- Applicants must demonstrate potential to incorporate community engagement into tuition or research.

Recommendations

- Teaching experience in an ODeL environment
- An acceptable written three (3) year personal research plan that demonstrates potential to engage in research (to be submitted with an application)
- Registration with a professional body

The following positions exist:

SCHOOL OF LAW
DEPARTMENT OF PRIVATE LAW
MUCKLENEUK CAMPUS (PRETORIA)

The Department of Private Law would particularly welcome applicants who have experience, knowledge, and relevant qualifications in Family law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for the Family Law module, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate law modules offered by the Department as and when operational needs of the Department require.

LECTURER: FAMILY LAW (X1) Ref. LECT/FAMLAW/CLAWSM/2020

POST SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS:

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required
- Applicants from designated groups must be registered for a master's degree in law (proof of registration to be submitted with an application)
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant teaching experience
- A research reflection and portfolio (to be submitted with an application)

Recommendations

- Participation in community engagement
- Teaching experience in an ODeL environment
- Research outputs: one (1) in three (3) years

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant working/industry experience
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in Family Law
- Applicants must demonstrate potential to incorporate community engagement into tuition or research

Recommendations

- Teaching experience in an ODeL environment
- An acceptable written three (3) year personal research plan that demonstrates potential to engage in research (to be submitted with an application)
- Registration with a professional body

LECTURER: LAW OF SUCCESSION (X1) Ref. LECT/LAWOFSUCC/CLAWSM/2020

The Department of Private Law would particularly welcome applicants who have experience, knowledge, and relevant qualifications in Law. Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for the Law of Succession module, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate law modules offered by the Department as and when operational needs of the Department require.

POST SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS:

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required.
- Applicants from designated groups must be registered for a master's degree in law (proof of registration to be submitted with an application)
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant teaching experience
- A research reflection and portfolio (to be submitted with an application)

Recommendations

- Participation in community engagement
- Teaching experience in an ODeL environment
- Research outputs: one (1) in three (3) years

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required.
- Applicants must be able to discuss their teaching reflection and statement
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant working/industry experience
- Applicants must submit a research reflection and/or portfolio in Family law and/or Divorce law
- Applicants must demonstrate potential to incorporate community engagement into tuition or research

Recommendations

- Teaching experience in an ODeL environment
- An acceptable written three (3) year personal research plan that demonstrates potential to engage in research (to be submitted with an application)
- Registration with a professional body

SCHOOL OF LAW

DEPARTMENT OF JURISPRUDENCE

BROOKLYN HOUSE (PRETORIA)

LECTURER: SKILLS COURSE FOR LAW STUDENTS (X1) Ref. LECT/SKILCOURFORLAW/CLAWSM/2020

Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for the Skills Course for Law Students module, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate law module offered by the College as and when operational needs require.

POST SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS:

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required.
- Applicants from designated groups must also be registered for a Master's degree in law (proof to be submitted with an application)
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant teaching experience

Recommendations

- Teaching experience in an Open Distance Learning environment
- Research outputs: one (1) in three (3) years

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required.
- Applicants from designated groups must also be registered for a Master's degree in law (proof to be submitted with an application)
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant working/industry experience

Recommendations

- Teaching experience in an Open Distance Learning environment
- An acceptable written three (3) year personal research plan that demonstrates potential to engage in research (to be submitted with an application)

LECTURER: INTRODUCTION TO PARALEGAL STUDIES (X1) Ref. LECT/INTROPARASTU/CLAWSM/2020

Candidates should note that although the position is primarily for the Introduction to Paralegal Studies module, the successful candidate will be expected to be involved in the tuition of any other undergraduate law module offered by the College as and when operational needs require.

POST SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS:

APPLICANTS FROM ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups
- Applicants from designated groups must also be registered for a Master's degree in law (proof of registration to be submitted with an application)
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant teaching experience

Recommendations

- Teaching experience in an Open Distance Learning environment
- Research outputs: one (1) in three (3) years

APPLICANTS FROM NON-ACADEMIA

Lecturer:

- For applicants from non-designated groups, a Master's degree in law is required. For applicants from designated groups, an LLB degree is required.
- Applicants from designated groups must be registered for a Master's degree in law (proof of registration to be submitted with an application)
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year relevant working/industry experience

Recommendations

- Teaching experience in an Open Distance Learning environment
- An acceptable written three (3) year personal research plan that demonstrates potential to engage in research (to be submitted with an application)

Salary: Remuneration is commensurate with the seniority of the position/s
Closing date: 02 October 2020
Enquiries: 012 429-6155 Ms S Mtshali
012 429-6496 Ms S Nkonyeni

- Your APPLICATION FORM FOR A PERMANENT ACADEMIC POST must be accompanied by a COMPREHENSIVE CURRICULUM VITAE and;
 - identity document (including passport, work permit, permanent residence permit or proof of nationalisation if applicable) (certified copies within the previous six months);
 - all educational qualifications (certified copies within the previous six months);
 - academic transcripts/records (certified copies within the previous six months);
 - proof of SAQA verification for foreign qualifications (if applicable) (certified copies within the previous six months)
 - for ACADEMIC POSITIONS a teaching statement (refer to page 1 of advertisement).
- UNISA reserves the right to authenticate all qualifications without any further consent from the applicant.
- The contact details of three contactable references must be provided, one of which must be from your present employer excluding your current line manager if you are an internal Unisa applicant.
- Late, incomplete and incorrect applications will not be considered.
- Unisa is not obliged to fill an advertised position.
- Appointments will be made in accordance with Unisa's Employment Equity Plan and other applicable legislation.

We welcome applications from Persons with Disabilities

ACTIVITY:

- Applications must be submitted to the following email address claw2pa@unisa.ac.za
- Use the reference number as the subject line e.g
Ref. PROFASSPROF/INTLAW/CLAWSM/2020
- Late, incomplete and incorrect applications will not be considered

Correspondence will be limited to short-listed candidates only. If you have not been contacted within two months after closing date of this advertisement, please accept that your application was not successful.